

ALEXANDER TUCKER PORTAL

ATP

Not content with being the curators of indie's most interesting live events, All Tomorrow's Parties' label offshoot ATP Recordings now rivals Sub Pop and 4AD in its roster of intriguing, leftfield artists. Home to the likes of Deerhoof and Fuck Buttons, the latest release from the stable is Alexander Tucker's fourth full-length album since his 1993 debut. It's with Fuck Buttons that Tucker shares a fuzzy dreamlike quality in his psychedelic alt. country. So convincing is the dusty, Old West vibe of the record, the last place you'd expect its maker to come from is Kent. Dean Driscoll
