

FUCK BUTTONS

Never has Rock Sound witnessed two people make such a racket - and what a marvellous racket it was. Melding keyboards, drums, samples, loops and all manner of instrumentation to create a truly monstrous wall of noise, we foresee a mighty fine future for this duo. Having just signed to ATP Recordings and released a limited edition 7-inch, expect their debut full-length proper, 'Street Horrrsing', to drop in February. Be afraid, be very afraid. DT
