NOISE WEIRDOS' DEBUT PUSHES ALL THE RIGHT (FUCK) BUTTONS.

NOISE MONGERING duo Fuck Buttons have a formidable reputation for captivating live shows and have now put on record the much anticipated fruits of their knob twiddling with this debut. With Mogwai's John Cummings on production duties, it comes as no surprise that there is some stunning sound manipulation going on. Like being hugged and shaken at the same time, from the twinkling beauty/horror of opener Sweet Love For Planet Earth to the chattering tribal unease of Ribs Out, to the intoxicating drone of Race You To The Bedroom – Spirit Rise, this is no easy listen. And it's all the more rewarding for it.
