

FUCK BUTTONS Street Horrrsing

ATP

8 Worst band name ever, obviously. But Fuck Buttons rapidly redeem themselves with these blissed-out static symphonies in the vein of Black Dice and White Rainbow, enlivened by jungle drums, chimp chants, colossal Eno synths and someone trying to tune a shortwave radio to the football results on the World Service but only picking up the distant screams of a doomed space shuttle being sucked into a black hole instead. Casually awesome.
